Ferguson v. Chicago Bd. of Education

98 C 6884

Judge Zagel

Defendant moves to strike portions of plaintiff's response to defendant's motion for summary judgment for failure to adhere to this court's Local Rules. Plaintiff's counsel put additional facts in the memorandum of law in opposition to the motion, instead of filing a separate statement of additional facts, and counsel generally failed to cite to supporting evidence when denying the facts stated in defendant's L.R. 56.1(a) statement. Defendant is quite correct that strict enforcement of the local rules would lead me to strike the facts in Ferguson's opposition as well as to deem as admitted every one of defendant's facts. However, I will not do so in this case. Plaintiff admits all but fourteen of defendant's facts and most of the facts that plaintiff attempts to put at issue are immaterial. My consideration of them does not alter the result in this case.

The motion to strike portions of plaintiff's submissions in opposition to defendant's motion for summary judgment is denied. However, plaintiff's counsel is ordered to strictly comply with this Court's Local Rules in all future submissions.
